Jeremy R. Cnudde is a Partner who helps clients navigate complex mergers and acquisitions, business succession planning, equity and tax reorganizations, and other corporate and financial transactions. Mr. Cnudde works with middle-market, entrepreneurial businesses with diverse backgrounds, including those in the engineering, manufacturing, aerospace and defense, distribution, retail, and agricultural industries. Beyond mergers and acquisitions he helps clients identify key concerns and negotiate with partners and investors on operating and shareholder agreements, shareholder disputes, buy-sell agreements, and drafting of supplier, customer and representative agreements. He has assisted companies with corporate finance and capital acquisition matters, private equity investments, recapitalizations, bank financing, and private placement issuance.

Mr. Cnudde also has significant experience with federal, state, and local tax planning, and property tax appeals. This includes tax-free reorganizations of businesses, partnership formation and tax planning regarding adding partners and partner distributions, and state tax planning regarding sales, use and business taxes. Mr. Cnudde's has helped numerous nonprofit corporations including charitable 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(6) associations from formation and obtaining and maintaining tax exempt status from the IRS, managing on-going business and tax compliance concerns, and negotiating nonprofit mergers, joint ventures and business transactions.

Over the last decade, he has helped hundreds of commercial and industrial property owners throughout Michigan successfully manage and appeal their Michigan property taxes resulting in millions of savings over the years. Mr. Cnudde has authored several articles and served as a seminar lecturer on various tax planning and tax appeal issues.

Mr. Cnudde maintains an AV rating from Martindale-Hubbell Law Directory, the highest peer review rating for attorneys; has a certification in tax law; has been recognized as one of Michigan's outstanding lawyers in the area of Mergers & Acquisitions from 2013 through 2018 with a "Rising Star" designation by Michigan Super Lawyers magazine, published annually by Law & Politics. In addition, Mr. Cnudde is a DBusiness Top Lawyer for Tax Law and Non-Profit/Charities Law (2012 and 2013) and received certification from the National Institute of Trial Advocacy (NITA) in 2006.

Mr. Cnudde is a member of the Detroit and Cleveland chapters of the Association of Corporate Growth (ACG), several business chambers and industry associations. He is a member of the State Bar of Michigan's Corporate, and Taxation sections, the Ohio State Bar Association and the American Bar Association Business and Taxation Section. Mr. Cnudde is an active leader in Boy Scouts, the Past-President for the Kiwanis Club No. 1 of Detroit Foundation and board member for numerous nonprofit corporations and associations.
