

FisherBroyles

Name: Bryan P. Durrett

Email: bryan.durrett@fisherbroyles.com

Direct: (704) 724-7464

Office: Charlotte

Practice Areas: Real Estate

Bar Admissions: North Carolina

Education: University of Pittsburgh, Juris Doctor, cum laude, 1995; University of Miami, LL.M. in Real Property Development, 1996; Duke University, Bachelor of Arts in Mathematics, 1981; Phillips Academy Andover, 1977

Experience: Nelson Mullins Riley & Scarborough LLP

Bryan Durrett is a partner in the FisherBroyles' Charlotte office, where he works with investors, developers, lenders, and major corporations in commercial real estate transactions, including the acquisition and development of healthcare properties. Additionally, he represents commercial landlords and tenants in lease negotiations for office, retail and industrial properties.

Experience

- Ground leases, air rights leases, acquisition and development of medical office buildings and ambulatory surgery centers for a publicly traded Real Estate Investment Trust
- Acquisition, financing, and development of large mixed-use projects, shopping centers and residential communities
- Involvement in several condominium projects and planned communities, as well as the preparation of all relevant formation and homeowners' association documents
- Assisting lenders, tenants, and purchasers through foreclosures
- Negotiating joint venture agreements

Professional Affiliations

- American Bar Association
-

Fisher Broyles

Page 2 of 2

- North Carolina Bar Association
- Mecklenburg County Bar Association

Community Involvement

- ACC Football Championship and Belk Bowl Board of Advisors
- Eagle Scout