Ms. Fletcher is a business lawyer with 28 years of experience. Her practice has focused on business bankruptcy and creditors' rights matters, loan workouts and business restructurings. In business bankruptcy cases, Ms. Fletcher has represented secured and unsecured creditors, committees, bankruptcy trustees, and purchasers of assets. She also has experience in commercial foreclosures, receiverships, commercial litigation and judgment and lien enforcement.

Ms. Fletcher is experienced in transactional matters, including the preparation and negotiation of purchase agreements, forbearance and loan modification agreements, promissory notes, security agreements, operating agreements, and other commercial contracts.

Ms. Fletcher has been a frequent speaker on bankruptcy topics at national and local seminars and professional conferences. She has been named by her peers as one of North Carolina's 2011 Legal Elite and has received the Outstanding Women in Business Award from the Charlotte Business Journal. She has served on the Executive Council of the Business Law Section of the American Bar Association and currently is a member of the Business Bankruptcy and Negotiated Acquisitions Committees. She is a member of the Turnaround Management Association, having founded and served as president of the TMA's Carolinas Chapter for several years as well as Editor of the TMA's Journal of Corporate Renewal. Ms. Fletcher is also a member of the American Bankruptcy Institute and the author of the ABI's best selling publication Bankruptcy: A Survival Guide For Lenders.
