Matthew DeFrancesco has diverse experience representing clients involved in high-profile matters across a wide breadth of industries. Mr. DeFrancesco's practice focuses on a wide variety of complex commercial litigation matters before federal courts, state courts, and alternative dispute resolution tribunals, including matters involving title disputes, as well as intellectual property, accounting malpractice, post-closing M&A, real estate, breach of contract, employment, construction, data security, and benefits and insurance disputes, among other things.

Mr. DeFrancesco also has extensive experience dealing with all aspects of competition law, including antitrust litigation, government investigations, and multi-jurisdictional merger clearance matters. He represents clients in connection with obtaining antitrust clearance for high-stakes, multi-billion-dollar mergers, acquisitions, and joint ventures reviewed by the Federal Trade Commission, the Department of Justice, as well as international competition law enforcers. His merger control experience spans a vast array of industries, including the aerospace, oil and gas, casino, entertainment, education, and publishing industries, among others. In addition to competition law, Mr. DeFrancesco's experience includes the representation of financial institutions, public companies, asset management firms, and individuals involved in government investigations and litigation matters arising out of alleged securities law violations.

Aside from counseling clients in connection with ongoing disputes, Mr. DeFrancesco also advises clients on risk mitigation and compliance matters that arise in an ever-changing international regulatory landscape. Mr. DeFrancesco provides preemptive guidance and tailored training to clients regarding business transactions and corporate compliance programs, to ensure observance with competition law, anti-corruption law, and other applicable regulatory regimes around the world.
